

Commandant's Remarks to the Class of 2009

BG Robert L. Caslen, Jr.

9 August 2006

Observations from the Summer

- Class of 2009
 - LTG(R) Ohle – Morale, teamwork “off the charts”
 - Fewer “incidents” than past years
 - Tough, realistic training – revised OHW is a success
 - High OPTEMPO

The “WHY,” Part I

A Warrior – This is What You Will Become

Soldier's Creed

I am an American Soldier.

I am a Warrior and a member of a team. I serve the people of the United States and live the Army Values.

I will always place the mission first.

I will never accept defeat.

I will never quit.

I will never leave a fallen comrade.

I am disciplined, physically and mentally tough, trained and proficient in my warrior tasks and drills. I always maintain my arms, my equipment and myself.

I am an expert and I am a professional.

I stand ready to deploy, engage, and destroy the enemies of the United States of America in close combat.

I am a guardian of freedom and the American way of life.

I am an American Soldier.

The “WHY,” Part II

Those moral qualities that constitute the nature of a leader and shape his/her decisions and actions

The “WHY, ” Part III

When the average American wants to see what is right with America, they will find it embedded in the values, ethics and traditions of the United States Military Academy.

Together, WE have the moral obligation to maintain these values.

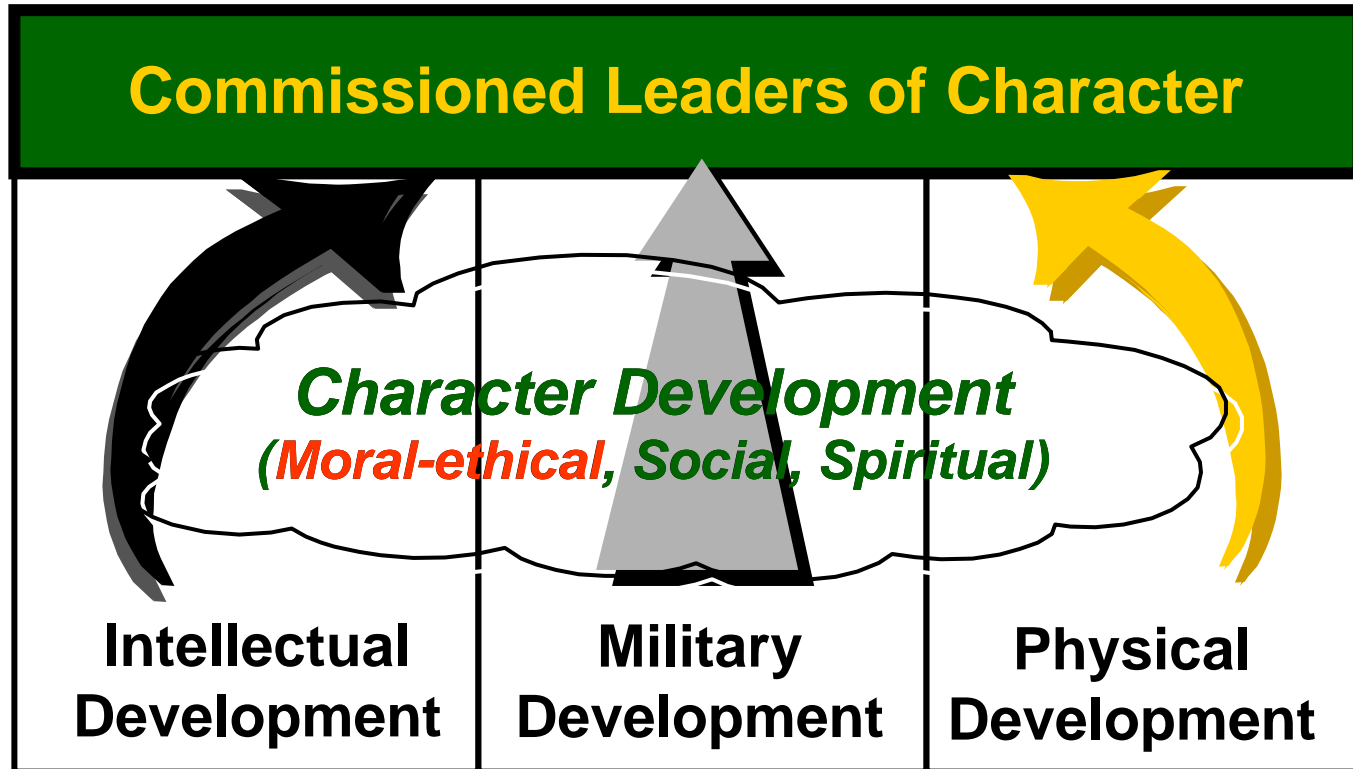

In order to do that we all must understand, maintain, and inculcate USMA and Army Values, and live them in all we do!

The risk is America’s loss of faith, trust and confidence in the military and our Army at large.

Competence is not a guarantor of Character!

The West Point Experience

Developing competence and character

The Comm's Top Five

- Developing disciplined leaders of character – integrity, respect, officership
- Teamwork: We, not I. Up, down, sideways
- Warrior focus. Mental, then physical toughness.
- Pride. Not egotism. Not from “hoopla,” but from “blood, sweat, tears.” Shared hardships. Mutual respect.
- Courage. Moral and Physical. Candor.

What You Can Expect From Me

- Respect
- Vision/goals. Guidance and Intent
- Communication – formal and informal, out of office
- Freedom to make mistakes
- Little tolerance for:
 - Hand-waving (not grappling w/ details for success)
 - Tap-dancing (trying to answer a question when you can't)
 - Rationalization (minimizing the importance of a failed action)
- No tolerance for:
 - Leaving a fellow soldier in the lurch...“I will never leave a fallen comrade.”
 - Loss of integrity
 - Gender or racial discrimination/harassment/abuse
 - Drug or alcohol abuse
 - Those who quit...“I will never quit.”

Plagiarism Trends

- Plagiarism cases in 05-06 up significantly over previous year
- 70% of cadets at board said they had no intent to deceive or they forgot to document
- Cadets sharing files and projects for “formatting shells” and not documenting – but they do get an advantage from looking at another cadet’s “shell” even if they don’t use the actual data

My Thoughts on Alcohol Use

- I do not accept alcohol abuse as a defense for anything
- One stupid act can ruin your career, your life, or someone else's
- Make common-sense decisions while still rational (e.g., driving, sleeping, etc)
- Never leave a fallen comrade
- Know your limits and our policies
- 0-0-1-3
 - No underage drinking
 - No DUIs
 - One drink per hour, maximum
 - Three drinks in an entire sitting

Take-Aways

- Teach the Fourth Class by being examples of what cadets should strive to be. They are your legacy.
- If you see something that isn't right, do something!
- Selflessness. Humility. It is about your team, not about you.
- Balance. Have some fun here.

“The Army is not made up of people; the Army is people...living, breathing, serving human beings. They have needs and interests and desires. They have spirit and will, strengths and abilities. They have weaknesses and faults, and they have means. They are the heart of our preparedness... and this preparedness - as a Nation and as an Army - depends upon the spirit of our soldiers. It is the spirit that gives the Army...life.”

General Creighton Abrams
